

Dear Amy -

July 25

Please excuse my stationery. I'm writing during a break at work. Thank you so much for the Cotillion pictures. I've already put them in my book.

We saw Anne this weekend - Charlie is up for a Jimmy Buffett concert. Andy Holden was here too for that. We had a barbeque at Catherine's house.

I'm getting excited about getting back to WBL. We have much right off the bat. I'm taking broadcast reporting, computer science, history of Europe after 1945, and a creative writing class.

My mother came for a visit last weekend. We went to see the Temptations and the Four Tops at Wolf Trap.

I think I'll write Maggie a note -

Talk to you later -
Gina
